"The artist is nothing without the gift, but the gift is nothing without work."
- Emile Zola

TALENT

Anyone can paint a wall but it takes a special something to be able to turn a wall into a desert sunset that looks so real you could smell the sagebrush or an ocean scene so precise you could swear it is a picture. It is either something you have, or something you don't, but is it definitely something Free Sky Studios has and continues to look for in all their artists.

"Art is a collaboration between God and the artist, and the less the artist does the better."
- Andre Gide
